

acquired	obsolete	fate	execute
sanction	drawing nigh	terrified	escape

Choose the best word or phrase from the above list to complete each of the three sentences below. The final sentence must be grammatically correct.

1. The coach removed the basketball player from the game, even though his chance to set a rebound record was _____.
2. The oceanographer learned to use a rebreather rather than normal scuba gear, because he believed the rebreather technology rendered scuba _____.
3. The defendant at the trial stood up as the judge told him what his _____ would be.

	umbrella term	resident
manifest	trajectory	indigenous	physician

Choose the best word or phrase from the above list to complete each of the three sentences below. The final sentence must be grammatically correct.

1. The center fielder judged the _____ of the ball, and ran to the correct spot to make the catch.
2. Whenever he needed help with his math, Joe went to his roommate Paul—the dorm’s _____ tutor—for help.
3. The _____ birds on the island of Bimini are extinct, because cats and rats from visiting sailing ships destroyed all their eggs.
- 4.

sentient	precipitously	complement	relative
-----------------	----------------------	-------------------	-----------------

Choose the best word from the above list to complete each of the three sentences below. The final sentence must be grammatically correct.

1. A rock cannot feel, see or think, so it is not _____.
2. After losing all his money at the casino, Fred began to think that he may have acted _____ when he had decided he could make his living as a gambler.
3. A twin-engine plane is more powerful than a single-engine plane, but _____ to a jet engine plane, it is not powerful at all.

prose	willingly	cradle	inform
motive	strive	carrel	report
immersed	jar	tome	muted
demurred	infer	pang	willfully

Choose the best word from the above list to complete each of the five sentences below. The final sentence must be grammatically correct.

1. George volunteered _____ to go on the cruise to the Arctic, as he liked (or had an affinity for) cold weather.
2. Sandra did not like the author’s writing style, she felt his _____ was not well written.
3. “I don’t think we should do this,” Fred _____. “I think it’s a bad idea.”
4. If the bird cage door is open, and the cat has feathers on its chin, I think it’s safe to _____ that the cat the bird.
5. Peter opened a jar of peanut butter, then called out to his daughter, “Don’t _____ the table, or you might make the milk glass fall off.”

impenetrable	biped	errant	extrapolate
---------------------	--------------	---------------	--------------------

Choose the best word from the above list to complete each of the three sentences below. The final sentence must be grammatically correct.

1. A horse is classified as a quadruped, because it has four legs. A bird is classified as a _____, because it has two legs.
2. The _____ ball hit the window instead of the outfielder’s glove.
3. In order to know what number was supposed to be next in the series 2, 4, 6, and 8, Doug had to _____ the answer from the numbers that had already been presented.

Email your choices to the appropriate email address. You will receive feedback within one hour.